

SDSU's sexual violence campus climate survey going live April 8. Check your email for a personalized link!

APRIL 8-11

CO-SPONSORS:

A.Ch.A.
Andrea O'Donnell Womyn's Outreach Association
Associated Students
Black Resource Center
Counseling and Psychological Services
Department of Women's Studies
FratMANners
One SDSU Community
Residential Education
SafeZones @SDSU
School of Theatre, Television and Design
The Sexual Violence Task Force
SISSTER
Student Affairs
Title IX Office
Well-being and Health Promotion
Women's Resource Center

Monday, April 8th

QUEERING HEALING THROUGH PLATICAS AND MESSAGES OF LOVE*

3-5pm, Templo Mayor,
Conrad Prebys Aztec Student Union
Berenice Dimas will create a workshop/ platica on Queeranderimo, where we discuss healing, love, and herbalism.

INTERSECTIONAL APPROACHES TO ADDRESSING SEXUAL VIOLENCE*

5:30-7:30pm, Scripps Cottage
This panel event features advocates from local organizations who will discuss intersectional approaches to address sexual violence.

Tuesday, April 9th

HEALTH EXPO TABLING

10am-3pm, North Library Walkway
Learn about health resources and services that are available on campus, including those related to sexual assault.

#METOO? BLACK WOMEN'S ROLE IN SEXUAL JUSTICE*

4-6pm, The Black Resource Center
This workshop will discuss black women's exclusion in the #MeToo movement, the exploitation of black women's sexuality, sexual violence in the context of slavery, and black women's role in sexual justice.

#NOTSILENTBECAUSE

5-7pm, Theatre, Conrad Prebys Aztec Student Union
An honest and open dialogue, designed to educate and empower our SDSU community to speak up against sexual violence.

Wednesday, April 10th

"ACTUALLY" BY ANNA ZIEGLER

4-6pm, Theatre,
Conrad Prebys Aztec Student Union
This is a play about two college students who had a sexual encounter with blurry consent and are going through a Title IX investigation. With lyricism and wit, Actually investigates gender and race politics, and multiple perspectives on an experience.

SEX TRAFFICKING. IT'S NOT JUST GLOBAL, ITS LOCAL

7-8:30pm, Tula Community Center
San Diego is one of the largest US cities for sex trafficking. Learn about the current state of trafficking in San Diego and how teams are using technology as a way to identify individuals who are being trafficked.

Thursday, April 11th

ARE LOVE, HEALING & JUSTICE ACCESSIBLE TO US? INTIMACY BEYOND SURVIVAL*

11:15am-1:15pm, Legacy Suite,
Conrad Prebys Aztec Student Union
The Queer Futures Collective will facilitate a workshop & collective healing space centering queer, trans, and disabled folks to reimagine current notions of intimacy, care, accessibility, and consent.

RISE: OPEN SUPPORT GROUP*

12:30-1:45pm, Women's Resource Center
Ongoing support group for survivors of sexual and dating violence. Facilitated by Counseling & Psychological Services

TAKE BACK THE NIGHT*

5:30-8pm, Lee & Frank Goldberg Courtyard,
Conrad Prebys Aztec Student Union
The Womyn's Outreach Association is hosting an open mic for survivors and will lead students in a march on campus to take a stand against sexual violence.

TAKE BACK THE WEEK is a collaborative effort from the SDSU community to spread awareness about issues surrounding sexual violence and rape, and to provide support to survivors. Please visit www.sdsu.edu/wrc for more information.

*These events are not eligible to attend for accreditation or extra credit for courses. Please respect participants and speakers by participating meaningfully and remaining for the duration of the event.